OCTOBER NEWS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

When I came across the Swedish proverb, "The afternoon knows what the morning never suspected," it caused me to think about what I know now that I did not know in my youth. A lot! Especially, historical perspective.

Recently I was surprised to learn that the 1907 Expatriation Act mandated that "any American woman who marries a foreigner shall take the nationality of her husband." Upon marriage, regardless of where the couple resided, the woman's legal identity morphed into her husband's. One could say she had no independent identity. It was not until 1940 that all women who had lost citizenship by marriage could regain it regardless of marital status. That's well within the memory of our mothers!

Plan to attend the showing of the film, "One Woman, One Vote" on Tuesday, October 29 in the Community Center. Bring your own lunch or popcorn to the noontime presentation; there is no need to RSVP.

At our luncheon meeting October 8, we will vote on proposed changes to the Club's bylaws to bring them into conformity with our actual practice. You may review the proposed changes by signing in to the Members Only page on the Club website

New Member Spotlight: Claudia Wilson

San Francisco State
University's loss is our gain!
Claudia Wilson recently joined the CMWIC following her retirement from the Graduate School of Education at S.F. State, where she taught for 35 years.

Claudia is a true Marinite. Her parents moved here from Manhattan when she was just 3 years old and, aside from living away during her college days and living in San Francisco and the East Bay for a few years here and there, this is her lifelong home.

Her hobbies are hiking, playing bridge, swimming, and yoga. She recently began taking classes in gigong, an ancient Chinese healing art involving meditation, controlled breathing, and movement exercises.

She heard about the CMWIC last year when she met a member at an event held at the Community Center.

"It sounded like a fun and worthwhile membership, so I decided to join," she says.

When you see Claudia, be sure to give her a warm welcome.

Linda Varonin's 80th field trip for CMWIC members was a walk in Golden Gate Park with the authors of Walking San Francisco's 49 Mile Scenic Drive. Congratulations on this milestone, Linda, and Thank You!
